Idaho Rules of Family Law Procedure 127. Reclaiming Exhibits, Documents and Property

At any time after the expiration of the time for appeal, the determination of an appeal, or the determination of a proceeding following an appeal and the expiration of the time for any subsequent appeal, whichever is later, any party or any interested person may apply to the trial court for an order permitting a reclamation by such party of exhibits offered or admitted in evidence, or any other documents or property displayed or considered in connection with the action. The trial court in its discretion may grant such an order on such conditions and under such circumstances as it deems appropriate, including but not limited to the substitution of a copy, photograph, drawing, facsimile, or other reproduction of the original exhibit, document or property, or the posting of a bond that the exhibit, document or property will be returned to the court if the court later finds it necessary.
